Vienna, March 17, N. S.

THE Pruſſians having advanced to Goding, with a Body much ſuperior to the Hungarians who were in the Caſtle to the Number of 300 Foot, and in or about the Town to the Number of 400 Horſe, have made themſelves Maſters of both, without much Reſiſtance. Above 200 of the Infantry are Priſoners of War, which was occaſioned, as is ſaid, by the two haſty Retreat of the Cavalry. The Place is of no Conſideration, but as having a Bridge over the Mark, and opening a Paſſage for a preſent Incurſion of the Pruſſians upon an Eſtate called Hollitch belonging to the Great Duke. The Pruſſians have withdrawn their Garriſon, without any Loſs, from Laab upon the Teya. They were followed, but to no Purpoſe, by 300 Huſſars and 2000 Peaſants, armed with all kinds of Weapons. A great Magazine is preparing at Waithoven, where it is expected that the main Army, deſigned to enter into Moravia, will be aſſembled in a very ſhort Time. A Detachment from Marſhal Khevenhuller is in Queſt of the great Magazine which is removing from Danavert, and which, it is thought, will be overtaken between that Place and Ulm.

Konigsberg, March 21, N. S. We hear that the Czarina, accompanied by her Nephew the Duke of Holſtein, ſet out for Moſcow on the 22d paſt, O. S. and that her Majeſty's Coronation is fixed for the 22d of April.

Berlin, March 24, N. S. The Prince of Anhalt Deſſau arrived here the 21ſt, and gave Orders for the immediate Marching of a Body of Troops from hence into Sileſia, amounting to about 11,000 Men, who are to be joined by another Corps of his Pruſſian Majeſty's Troops from Bohemia. We have an Account from Moravia of the 16th Inſtant, that an advanced Poſt of the King of Pruſſia's, commanded by Count Trouchſes, had been attacked by a Body of Huſſars, who had killed and wounded a great Number of the former; That the Count's own Regiment had ſuffered very much in the Action, and that he himſelf, with the greateſt Part of his Officers, had been wounded therein.

Dreſden, March 25, N. S. Since the Auſtrians are grown ſtronger in Lower Auſtria, his Pruſſian Majeſty has diſcontinued his Incurſions in that Province, and poſted the Saxons at Laab, the laſt Town of Moravia on thoſe Frontiers, and is lining the River March with a Force ſufficient to prevent any Incurſions from Hungary on that Side, having the Remainder of his Troops in Moravia, in the Neighbourhood of Brunn and Pohrlitz on the Rivers Zwittawa and Schwartza, in order to ſuſtain the Saxons in their Siege of Brunn, of which Place the Blockade is not yet compleatly formed. It is now ſaid, that Lieutenant General Polaſtrone is to form the Siege of Eger, and that he has already ſent the Saxon Cannon from Prague for that Purpoſe.

Hamburgh, March, 27, N. S. The Deputies who were lately ſent from hence with a Commiſſion to regulate ſome Points depending between this City and the Daniſh Court, arrived at Copenhagen a Fortnight ago, but we have as yet no Account of their having been admitted to an Audience of the King of Denmark.

Paris, March 28, N. S. The Infant Don Philip, was expected at Marſeilles the 22d Inſtant; but there are no Accounts of his being, as yet, arrived there.

In the Gazette of Tueſday March 16, in the laſt Line but two from the Bottom of the 2d Page, inſtead of John Morley Trevor, Eſq; read John Trevor, Eſq;
